VACCINATION BATTLE

rearing Before Legislative Committee at Hartford-Doctors Accused of Revenue runting.

Hartford, April 29.—The battle which has occurred at every session of the legislature for years was on this afternoon in the hall of the house between the vaccinationists and the anti-vaccinationists. The latter opposed the hearing before the committee on public health and safety by distributing a leaflet upon which they asked a number of medical questions regarding smallpox and ending with the demand that the anti-vaccination bill be reported favorably by the committee. They then explained their position to the committee and cited instances where persons had sustained serious diseases and the speakers even claimed that many deaths have resulted through infection from tetanus and other diseases.

Physicians Accused.

Physicians Accused. A long address was made by Dr. S.
B. Munn of Waterbury, the president of the Anti-Compulsory Vaccination league. This speaker accused the doctors of desiring to have the present law continued for the revenue which it afforded them. He attributed the fact that cancer is on the increase to
